INTERNATIONAL

WITH all chips down in the Balkan game, Herr Hitler added another vassal state to his collection of small, but valuable assets in southeastern Europe as rumors of impending capitulation by the Yugoslavians spread.

The ease with which the might of the German arms muscles in on neighboring nations without so much as a "by your leave" has ceased to be much of a miracle.

With the coming of spring the world waits only to see the next move in this masterful drama of arms and the diplomat. Like the great New York Yankees of several years ago, it looks like Herr Hitler is not only headed for the pennant but may cop the World Series, too.

Set 'em up in the other alley, boy. They're all down here.

WASHINGTON

HOUSE Bill 1776 is law.

All-out aid, short of war, is a thing of fact as well as of argument now. Britain gets the dough and Americans (you and me) will probably get the check when the thing is over.

But, that's democracy, and nothing can now be done about it. According to American standards of political values, it is up to the former dissenters to rally around and lend a hand in the program decided upon.

Fair enough, Uncle. You're making the bet and if you're wrong, too bad. Like the man locked in a telephone booth with a wildcat, this is no time to argue politics.

CAMPUS

An open letter to Mrs. Marvel Dell Shore, chairman of the Committee for Law and Order of 500.

Dear Mrs. Dell Shore:
In the past few issues of the Golden Gater our attention has been brought to the group which you head.

Being of a lawful and orderly character, we have been attempting to find out just what the aims of your committee is and how we would go about lending a hand in the work you are driving at.

We are given to understand that by joining your forces we will uphold law, order and democracy but at the same time we can save six and a half bucks, which to us is not hay. They also give us to know that along with saving the six and a half bucks we are still allowed to stick our nose into matters of student body policy, even though we don't pony up the dough that gives us that privilege.

A crusade is something that we glory in. Once we had the idea of crusading for a rest home for the aged and infirm mice in the Co-op, but failing to get any co-operation from either the Editor, the mice or the Board of Publications, the whole thing fell through.

We believe that your committee is just as worthy of support as our own brain child was, indeed, we will even go so far as to say it is probably of slightly more worth. After all, we'd never get our name in headlines crusading for mice, although we do not expect for one moment that you are interested in headlines or publicity.

Hoping you can find it possible to add another recruit to your ranks, thereby making it the Committee for Law and Order of 501, and maybe we can save the mice, too.

Sincerely,
JACK LYNCH.

Frosh Hop Slated For March 29; Orchestra Decision Still Pending

Ship ahoy, mates! The crew of the good ship SS. State is shoving right off for the Frosh Hop, heading for the Sir Francis Drake Hotel and arriving at 9 p. m. the night of March 29.

Decidedly nautical in theme, the Frosh Hop will be held in the Empire room of the Sir Francis Drake Hotel, Saturday, March 29, it was decided by the officers of the combined low and high freshman classes.

The Empire room is a large, elevated ballroom, opening off on a spacious, luxuriously furnished lobby. It is on the second floor of the hotel, thus assuring State dancers privacy from the usual Saturday night crowds which frequent the hotels, Ray Lang, high frosh president, said.

Several orchestras have been auditioned, including Norville Knight and Gene Munday, but no

Committee of 500 Asked By Executive Board To Present Grievances at Monday Night Meeting

Town Hall Forum In Foreign Policy Debate

The foreign policy of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, a topic of discussion among all branches of Americans during the present conflict, is the motivation for the discussion of the college peace committee taking place today at noon in the Little Theater, Annex B-2.

Upholding the president's views and enactments on the present aid-to-Allies sentiment is

Mr. David Summers Lull, State student, who has been an active member of the college Forensic Council and Delta Sigma, debate fraternity. Mr. Lull, a forceful speaker, is apparently well-versed on the subject of foreign policy, according to press dispatches from the Peace Group.

Opposing Mr. Lull, likewise voicing their opinions against the President's attitude towards foreign relations, are Mr. Basil Pritchard and Mr. James Robert Sweeney, former president of the associated students of the college.

RULES STRICT

Rules of order patterned on those of Robert's Rules will be observed strictly throughout the discussion, it was stated by Peace Group members. "Questions only" was the rule devised to prevent listeners from "editorializing" from the floors of the discussion.

According to members of the group, this move was designed to preserve a more democratic feeling in the discussion.

Block S Offers 'Pageant of State' For Spring Activity

With Norman Crane as chairman of the program, the Block S society is making plans for its "Pageant of State," to be presented in Frederic Burk, auditorium on April 25.

Various organizations which have played a part in the school's history, including groups like the first women's field hockey team, several fashion clubs and the men's first football squad, will be portrayed by the Block S men.

Original plans had called for a dance to be held the same night under the auspices of the Block S society in the women's gym, but this has been cancelled so that more attention may be given to the show.

Aiding Crane with the program are Bob Hodgins, Arch Steinbach, Bob Cumming, Jack Fischer, Bill Stein, Will Wendt and Ernie Loustolot.

FRANCISCAN NOTICE!

Campus organization pictures for the 1941 Franciscan will be completed next week, according to Editor John Pichotto. However, in the event of rain, the pictures will be postponed for exactly one week from the day scheduled.

Members of the organizations listed below should convene at the time scheduled by the palm tree on the lawn in front of the Rally Bowl. This year each club member will be charged only 5 cents instead of the 10 cent fee of former years.

Harold Martin will be in charge of organization photography and will be assisted in arranging pictures and collecting fees by Dorothy Davis, Alita Zolot and Wade Brummal.

Student Campus Concert Has Music Talent

Presenting three talented young campus artists, the first student concert of the semester will take place Wednesday, March 19, at noon in the Baptist church, Waller at Octavia, under the direction of Barbara Worth and Richard Gordon, student concert managers. The event is a harbinger of another series of a student-handled affairs, featuring student talent exclusively and presented in professional manner.

The program for Wednesday noon will bring to campus auditors Miss Connie Bastin, soprano; Mr. Lloyd Allen, pianist, and Mr. Tom Chestnut, french horn artist. Miss Bastin, who first appeared at last semester's freshman tea, is a member of the Madrigal singers and was one of the several State students who assisted the San Francisco Opera Company's presentation of "Aida" this season. ### Students' Monograms Exhibited by Artists

On exhibition in College hall at the present time is a showing of Monograms both interesting in design and utilitarian in purpose, according to members of the art department.

The Monograms were created by Mrs. Cooch's Art 4 classes to be used on the students' portfolios. They may also be used on wearing apparel and other belongings to give them a more personal appeal.

TO HEAR CHARGES

MORLEY CARROTHERS

Acting in a precedent-shattering manner, Student Body President Morley Carrothers today announced that the chairman of the Committee for Law and Order of 500 had been requested by the Ex. Board to appear before the body and clear up charges hurled of "gravy train" riding.

Named as one of the steady passengers on the rake-off locomotive, Treasurer Joe Edelstein (below), a member of the Board, will answer the accusations of the Committee that he disregarded pleas for a financial statement of Student Body money.

As campus furore rose to a fever pitch over the insistent demands of the unknown group to inject "democracy" into student affairs, Officers Carrothers and Edelstein deemed it wise to drag the entire story out into the open, fight insinuations thrown in the editorial pages of the Gater.

Open to student members the meeting promises action heretofore unknown on State's campus, may quiet incessant howls of insurgent groups.

Mrs. Marvel Dell Shore, self-announced chairman of the committee for Law and Order of 500, has made no statement regarding her willingness to face the Ex. Council and enlarge on the statements made in her letter to the Editor in the Gater of last Friday.

In this first thrashing out of student problems before an official group, question ran high as to the effectiveness or result of any such a probe.

'S. F. State? Never Heard of It'; H. V. Kaltenborn

"I've never heard of S. F. State College, but if you say it will soon be the finest college in California then I'm sure it will be."

With a twinkle in his eye, H. V. Kaltenborn, NBC's brilliant commentator, made this agreement in an interview after his Town Hall lecture at the Opera House last Friday night.

"Speaking of colleges," he said, "I think many of your professors are keeping the courses in tune with the times, but many of them are not."

It was his opinion that college curriculum isn't in enough instances designed to relate itself with the problems of the day and of future days.

He pointed out that students come out of colleges with too much theory and knowledge allied only with events and conditions of the dead past.

"Instructors," he said "should develop more courses that will be interwoven with your current problems of livelihood, economy and living philosophies."

KEEN OBSERVER

In lecturing to a capacity audience earlier in the evening, Kaltenborn made an unusually keen and up-to-the minute analysis of the war.

"With the passage of the Lease-Lend Bill," he said, "the last sem-

Student Body Fees Argument to Be Discussed in Public Session

A new episode in the battle that has raged on the editorial pages of the Gater between the Committee of 500 for Law and Order and the Associated Student Body, received a bombshell today with the announcement by President Morley Carrothers that an invitation had been sent to Mrs. Marvel Dell Shore, chairman of the group to present her grievances before the Executive Board meeting next Monday night.

CASE WELCOMED

"Nothing is being accomplished," said Carrothers, "by the continuation of this hurling of charges and counter charges in the Gater." He added that the opportunity for Mrs. Dell Shore to present her case to the Ex Board was given in a spirit of "fairness and democratic process."

A direct result of the decision passed by Attorney Earl Warren wherein no student can be forced to join any student group without his own permission, the issue has stirred up a furore in administration circles.

Swim Rally Termed Year's Best by Minor

The first rally ever held for a swimming team at State filled the rally bowl and provided more entertainment than previous rallies, according to Rally Director Gordon Minor, who ran out of the 700 song copies he had for the occasion.

Featured on the program was Mort Steiner's orchestra with Bob Skinner at the piano, Steiner with the bass, Doug Strang playing his clarinet and Bill Wagner who played his trumpet professionally at the Golden Gate Theater last week.

The swimming team was introduced by Coach Hal Harden, Nat Argento, monologist, told stories of a ball game and a boat ride. The Men's Glee Club then sang its theme song, "Little Brown Jug," arranged by Leighton Edelman.

Dean Ward Offers Part-Time Work to Girls

Women of the college who are in need of part time work may see Dean Mary A. Ward during her office hours 9-4 in College hall. Dean Ward is constantly hearing of new positions and is anxious to place those students who really need the work in one of these openings.

Pan American Physician to Lecture To Science Club on Health Work

Dr. Rodney Beard, Industrial Physician of Pan American Airways' Pacific Division, will speak to Beta Pi Sigma, the Science Club, Tuesday, March 18, in Room A 207 at noon. Dr. Beard's topic will be "Health Problems on the Clipper Lanes."

Dr. Beard graduated from Stanford Medical School in '08, took his internship at Gorgas in the Panama Canal Zone and studied at Harvard University under a Rockefeller Foundation Scholarship. Dr. Beard completed a year at Johns-Hopkins last December where he specialized in Public Health Pathology.

In the last issue of the Gater, Mrs. Dell Shore forwarded a letter to the editor, Ernest Bicknell, which was printed in its entirety.

Charges of "gravy train" riding were made against Bill Abbey, former yell leader, Joe Edelstein, Associated Student Body treasurer, and Jim Martin, business manager of the student publications. By a decision of the Executive Board a resolution was passed asking Mrs. Dell Shore to appear and justify the statements made in her letter.

"We propose to continue our fight for a democratically controlled student body organization, for a public accounting of its funds, for elimination of faculty interference, and for ousting of the gravy train riders," the letter stated.

The inner workings of the Committee of 500 for Law and Order is unknown to student body officials, the majority of whom profess ignorance of the group or their officials.

Student opinion was voiced by Frank Gramucci, member of the Ex Board and Senior class president, when he stated that he believed any "honest criticism that might benefit the student body as a whole would be more than welcomed by the Ex Board."

Rosemary Saum, secretary of the board was ordered to draft the letter inviting Mrs. Dell Shore to the meeting in the student body office next Monday evening.

"Until Mrs. Dell Shore presents her case to us officially there is nothing that can be done to reach any kind of understanding with her group," Carrothers said.

The meeting will be open to the public as are all Ex Board meetings.

In addition to his duties with Pan America, Dr. Beard is instructor in Public Health and Preventative Medicine at Stanford Hospital.

Last Summer Dr. Beard toured the United States studying public health problems. More recently he studied the health problems on the Pacific Airlines on the Hawaii, Midway and Wake Island runs. It will be upon this trip that Dr. Beard will base his lecture and will show slides taken on this trip.

He will also tell of a trip planned for this Spring which will touch each of the island bases, including the Australia, New Zealand and Shanghai terminals.

About a Mud-Slinging Matter

The many persons who did not understand last Tuesday's editorial because they were not entirely informed on the situation, or for other reasons, deserve a detailed explanation. They shall have it.

A week ago, as a grand finale to a series of warm exchanges via the Lifting the Lid column, a letter was received which I considered important enough to use editorially. Said letter was from Mrs. Marvel Dell Shore, a young woman who has made herself extremely unpopular with the student body by her methods of publicity seeking. Her insistence in the past of exercising her legal right not to pay student body fees and become a functioning member of the Associated Student Body has not increased her popularity with the great number who have a different point of view.

This letter, however, leveled charges against officers of the student body which could not be left hanging in the air. Regardless of who asked the questions, they would be valid.

Immediately on the appearance of the letter, many students clustered on my neck. Avoiding the main question, students wished to know why a non-member of the student body deserved to have a letter to the editor printed. In fact, why should the name of such a person be allowed in the paper at all.

That's the meat of their argument.

Censorship or Not?

My argument in turn, in very simple words, was that somewhere when you exercise a censorship of names in a newspaper, you must draw a line. If the line is drawn on the basis of whether a person holds a student body card or not, then that is where the line must be drawn. My editorial of last Tuesday merely sought to carry out the request of those many persons who pointed out the way to me.

Of course, no such stupid, ridiculous censorship will actually occur. If it were carried to the extreme suggested by my friends, then obviously the newspaper would cease to exist. You see this, don't you? Let me call your attention to Earl Anderson's sincere effort today to carry out my dictum in his interview. A masterpiece, no less, and thank you, Mr. Anderson.

I hope you, reader, are observant enough to realize that these little discussions concerning the freedom of the student press have been entirely a side issue. With that issue settled, we must note that the questions and charges aimed at the student body officers are yet to be answered.

Politics or Publicity?

First the charges must be made specific. Charges like "nefarious activities" and "gravy train rides" don't go. That's hitting below the belt. It's dirty, even in politics. And you know, not only are the hands of mud-slingers usually soiled, but they must give ground, too. Mrs. Shore has been invited by the Executive Board to appear before it Monday evening at 7:15. Here, to quote her letter, she may "lay bare before the public's gaze" the "ferreted out nefarious activities."

Our little publicity seeker will get a break. Page one of the Gater will be held Monday night so that you may gaze Tuesday at the story of this meeting. Two of my best reporters (and I certainly don't mean me!) will cover it. In this column I have not yet cleared away the fog for this story for you.

Those who wrote letters of indignation or considered same, please communicate your doubts. I have a post box, a Gater box and even office hours.

BICK.

To turn to an even more dismal matter that occupies a place on the front pages of the metropolitan journals, it is probably in line to comment on the case of the San Francisco Police Department vs. the San Francisco Press.

It is all well and good to attempt to alleviate any wrongs that are brought to the attention of the newspapers, but in the matter of the alleged beatings of the two Stanford students by the Southern Station officers a question arises as to whether or not entire police department is not being tried in the public prints.

Punish the guilty, don't persecute the department.

ANDERSON

With the Cast...

IN last Tuesday's paper this column received a letter from the very erudite editor of the sheet you are now reading which I quote herewith:

"I notice you have been interviewing various celebrities in recent weeks for your Gater column. Please be advised that: 1. These interviews must be discontinued; or, 2. The personalities must be interviewed anonymously with no names mentioned; or, 3. You must collect a student body fee from each so that the name may be used."

BICK.

"Hello," said the nice looking man offering his hand, "my name is the same as the English king at the time of the Norman Conquest." Backstage at a theater downtown, he was making personal appearances in connection with the world premiere of his latest picture (name deleted).

This man's quiet charm and sincerity, and refreshing modesty leave no doubt as to why he has gained the enviable position in the public eye that he now holds. Although he has been producing his own pictures for years, this one is the first in which he does not appear. (Series of quotes deleted.) But, his venture into the producing end of the business does not mean that he has abandoned his career as an actor. (Story of his next picture, deleted.) This man, whose trademark is a pair of horn-rimmed spectacles has three favorite pictures, but I can't mention their names. (Bick might see them.)

With the man, whose last name is the same as that of a famous English insurance company, was his star, beautiful Miss (the last name is the same as a round object used in playing different kinds of games, like base—, basket—, etc.) She is a statuesque blonde, who, clothed in a fur trimmed green suit, was extremely attractive. As far as she is concerned her first part of any importance was in (name deleted). Her husband is a Cuban, and their next picture together has the name of a famous city in that country. They may do a show by a famous team of writers in a certain Eastern city (names deleted).

"Hello," said the nice looking man offering his hand, "my name is Lloyd." Backstage at the Golden Gate Theater where, with his stars, he was making personal appearances in connection with the world premiere of "A Girl, a Guy, and a Gob," we had the opportunity for a brief talk with Harold Lloyd, one of the world's most popular comedians.

Mr. Lloyd's quiet charm and sincerity, and refreshing modesty leave no doubts as to why he has gained the enviable position in the public eye that he now holds. Although he has been producing his own pictures for years, G. G. & G. is the first in which he does not appear. "Producing is a lot of fun if you get people like I had in this picture, who know the business, and who are such grand players."

But, his venture into the producing end of the business does not mean that he has abandoned his career as an actor. "As a matter of fact, I just bought a story a short time ago, which is going into production in a few weeks. I play a fellow who gets caught in the draft, and is put in the Intelligence Department. He is told not to tell anyone anything, and when he gets mixed up in big doings, with a beautiful spy, he is unable to explain. I'd like to get someone like Rosalind Russell for the spy, but it is difficult to get actresses like Miss Russell to play with comedians."

Mr. Lloyd's favorite pictures are all silents — "Grandma's Boy," "The Freshman" and "Safety Last." These will be remade as talkies as soon as a boy similar in personality to Mr. Lloyd's familiar character is found.

"Comedy in the silent days was all ocular. Today it is a blend of ocular and dialogue, and the success of the picture depends pretty largely upon how well they are blended." As for his last few pictures, Mr. Lloyd didn't care very much for them. "The backgrounds were odd. People don't care very much for comedy with a prizefight background ('The Milky Way') or politics ('The Cat's Paw')." Mr. Lloyd's comedy depends largely upon a basis of gags, so his pictures as well as Charlie Chaplin's are being continually reshowed in Art Museums, such as at the Fair. It is unfortunate, Mr. L. believes, that the projection machines of today run so much faster than they used to, for the films of yesterday seem to jump. However, other than this minor technical difference, any of his old films can be very much enjoyed today, and if an opportunity presents itself, you should see the films of one of the great pantomimists of all time.

Mr. Lloyd's beautiful star is Lucille Ball, who, offscreen, is even lovelier than in pictures. She is a statuesque blonde, who, clothed in a fur trimmed green suit, was so attractive that it was hard to keep the mind occupied on the business of the moment. Miss Ball began her career as a model, coming west as a model for the movie, "Roberta." As far as she is concerned, however, the first real part she had was in "Stage Door."

"Mrs. Rogers (Ginger's mother) was wonderful to me. She conducts a school on the RKO, putting on plays, which are a great help to the young players who haven't done much dramatic work."

Miss Ball prefers doing comedy, and her favorite part is "this one, certainly." (Speaking of "Girl, a Guy, & Gob.") She met her husband, Desi Arnaz, when they were making "Too Many Girls" together last year. "Desi was the whole show in that. The main reason, I like that picture is because we met while making it." After finishing the picture, Desi went East to do personals, and when she went East to do them, they were married on November 30. Since that time they have been making more personal appearances. Having done them before in connection with "Dance, Girl, Dance," she is quite used to them, now, but still likes doing them.

"Desi and I are going to start a picture, tentatively titled 'Havana,' when we return to Hollywood. After that we may do a musical together in New York, by Rodgers and Hart." At this point, Mr. Arnaz beckoned, and Miss Ball, or Mrs. Arnaz, as she prefers to be called, beat a hasty departure.

BOUTON

High Notes...

ONCE again last Monday San Francisco welcomed the San Carlo Opera Company for its annual Spring series of operas. This year the opening performance was the pathetic story of Madame Butterfly.

Madame Butterfly is characteristic of Puccini's love for a strong theatrical situation, and his sympathy for a heroine in distress. Puccini was a strong feminist; his menare rarely drawn with the sympathy, the assurance, and the power that his portraits of women have. This is seen in the fact that although the pathetic possibilities of Butterfly are exploited effectively the other characters are lacking in definition. However, the dramatic weakness of these characters is skillfully disguised by the variance and piquancy of the orchestral background.

The San Carlo's interpretation of Madame Butterfly remains among the best. The whole company is lead by Hizi Koyke as Madame Butterfly in getting the feeling of this tragedy.

The opera was performed in English, which was its greatest failing. True, one could understand the story better, but some of the beauty of the music is missed in straining to catch the words. The ancient adage that "ignorance is bliss" flits well here.

The petite Miss Koyke is a Japanese, and plays the part as if it were written for her. Her grand interpretation of the tender, child-like Butterfly was brought to a great climax by her fine histrionic ability in the tragic death scene. Rolf Gerard as the tenor, Pinkerton, deserves a word or two of praise himself. Although his voice is very light, his interpretation of the drab role as created by Puccini gave the whole opera a punch that it would not have had otherwise. Mr. Gerard carried the first act by his subtle humor and understanding of his part.

The San Carlo is off to a brilliant start. This season promises to be one of their best.

A list of performances is given below:

Friday evening, March 14—Faust (Ballet).
Friday Matinee, March 15—Triple bill—Martha (in English), Balcony scene from Romeo and Juliet, and Ballet Divertissement.
Sunday matinee, March 16—Rigoletto (Ballet).
Sunday evening, March 16—Il Trovatore (Ballet).
Monday evening, March 17—Cavalleria and Pagliacci.

IT'S QUITE POSSIBLE... It's a Crying Shame

LAST week I complained that the library was not subscribing to Hearst papers because they thought two papers were enough to supply the campus with reading material and daily news coverage. But one of my special correspondents remembered a letter on the subject in last semester's Gater in which a librarian was quoted saying that Hearst papers aren't taken in the library "Because they are Hearst papers."

If that is true, I'm sorry I ever brought the subject up. I affirm there is nothing can be done about it. I have been wasting my time, and the Gater's type and space.

I regret to say that one assistant librarian admitted to me Monday that she had heard of the Hearst policies as one reason why no Hearst papers were taken. She considered this as a reason equal to the limitations of cost and the coverage already offered by two copies of one paper and one of another.

Last week at this time, I considered it bad judgment not to take a Hearst paper. I still do, even now that I understand the library has taken over duties which usually come under the departments of Information and Propaganda in other countries. Censorship is something I am afraid will come about all too soon. It's too bad there is already a machine here on the campus.

Kampus Kapers... The Passing Parade

ONE sure way of ascertaining whether or not spring has arrived is by looking at the "campus" or that patch of green between the gym and Anderson hall. If it is crowded with lovey-doveys, newspapers, orange peels, and cutters, then, you can be sure that balmy weather has arrived and everyone is dead set on enjoying it. Now that we have successfully covered this subject of nice warm weather, we'll get on with the story.

Phi Lambda Chi sorority sisters enjoyed a dinner at "101" last week, which happens to be their sorority house on Buena Vista. The fact that the new members were hostesses made it twice as agreeable for the older sisters. The hostesses were: Jeanette Krull, Shirley Rouse, Peggy Knop, Isabel Scholz, Harriet Chandler, Violet Chase, Zelma Flieger, Winnie Kettle, Roberta McCouchey, Mary Baldwin, Betty Baldwin, Betty Aronson, Barbara Sieber and Miriam Schwartz. Tonight a "pajamarino" will be held at the house as a climax to the informal initiation ceremony.

Around the gay spots over the weekend were Mary Gresham and Len Wade at the Frantic and Dotie Bennett at the Palace, Saturday. Our Editor and his charming wife, Ann, enjoyed themselves at the Bal Tabarin.

After thoroughly reading the column will be Saturday, March 29, at the Sir Francis Drake.

Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Treutlein attended the Bib 'n' Tucker tea at the home of Dorothy Hoyt last Saturday, at did Alice Sweeney, Jackie Manuel, Esther Regier, Pat Reynolds, Lucille Tackle and Virginia Huff.

Doris Thompson is the little green man who spotted the following at the C. S. T. A. dinner at the Stephens Union Hall last Friday at that small Berkeley institution across the bay. Diners were Helen Luchetti, Ed Barry, Ruth Coey, Betty Aronson, Cleo Princeas, Ted Wood, Dr. S. L. Brown, Miss Clara Crumpton, and Miss Helen Thomas.

Members of Dr. Baxter Geeting's Radio Technique class are a wee bit disgusted because they have to attend Wednesday afternoon's class at 2 until certain station difficulties are straightened out. Oh, well, such is life.

LIFTING THE LID...

Dear Bick:

Since when has there been such a "policy" as appears today in your column? The policy seems to be that no one may be written of in your paper (which will again be known as a rag if this ridiculous plan continues), unless he holds a student body card. What's the idea? The student body is in a dilemma at the sudden and ungainly appearance of said policy; where did it come from? Do you make up these things as you go along? We'd appreciate an explanation. Sincerely, A Paid-up Student Body Member.

Dear Editor:

Does the new men's dormitory have to be called the "Rock"? Have you ever read notices about Alcatraz Island in the S. F. newspapers? They affectionately call Alcatraz the "Rock."

Imagine the shock some people may get, if by mistake, they pick up a copy of the Gater and see that 25 or 30 S. F. State men are to be transferred to the "Rock."

"ALCATRAZIAN."

Fantasia Exhibits

Originals from Fantasia are being shown at the San Francisco Museum of Art, McAllister and Van Ness avenue. These examples of Disney's artistry are exhibited free of charge.

Mechanics of Fantasia's production are divulged through these selections of originals and accompanying explanations.

The exhibit is divided into four parts: Idea Sketches, Ideas in Action, Master Backgrounds, and finally, Scenes Themselves.

My new plan for the reorganization involves dropping the subscription to the News, an excellent paper, and taking the Examiner. That would give us two morning papers, better coverage of the previous day's news, and a chance to see one of the good Hearst newspapers.

Naturally, if the library could take all the San Francisco papers, that would be fine. But if that's not possible, two morning papers are much more practical in a day college than two in the morning and one in the evening.

But I'm not sure the library wants us to know what Hearst publications say.

Under the Blotter

By GEORGE RUGE.

A Mr. Joe McCrystle wrote us a little letter the other day, criticizing the physical education quarters for men at this school.

Joe, it seems, resides South o' Market. He knows bad conditions when he sees them. He writes:

Sports Editor—Sir: Earlier in the year my athletic club the _____ played a practice game of _____ at your school. It was a good game as far as it went. But as I sez to my pal it could have been better because a guy don't feel so good when his team gets walloped.

So we lost to your team and when we went down to the locker room for a shower THAT did not help our dispositions any either.

I stood with my pal in the shower room and sez to him I sez JEEZ! its cold in here. Yeh, sez my pal, and the water is like ice.

PAL BOILED

But he hadn't hardly got the words out when he lets out a terrible shriek. I sez what's the matter pal? And he turns around and I see that his back has been scalded! Yessir it was as red as the jerseys we wear.

My pal sez he is getting away from this joint with its queer underground passages which have been turned into a (alleged) training quarters.

But pal I sez, don't let this get you I sez. Besides I am sweating and I stink and I certainly need a wash.

Okay sez my pal but I am going to get dressed. You can take a shower but don't blame me if you have to spend a quarter for a tube of Unquentine he sez.

So I get into the shower and turn on the water. The spray that comes out is like fog and hardly gets me wet and the water is like ice but I sez to myself it will warm up.

JOE BOILED

And then Mr. Sports Editor I let a shriek out which was very much like the one my pal let out. He comes running in and looks at my back and he sez it is redder than the whites of Joe Stalin's eyes.

I sez come on pal, I have had enough of this joint. Yeh sez my pal, and besides it don't smell so good in here, he sez.

So we left and me and my pal agreed that if we never see your underground gym again it will be too soon.

Yours truly, Joe McCrystle.

So you don't like the alternating current in our showers, eh Joe? What appreciation, Joe! Why those showers were designed especially to stimulate the circulation.

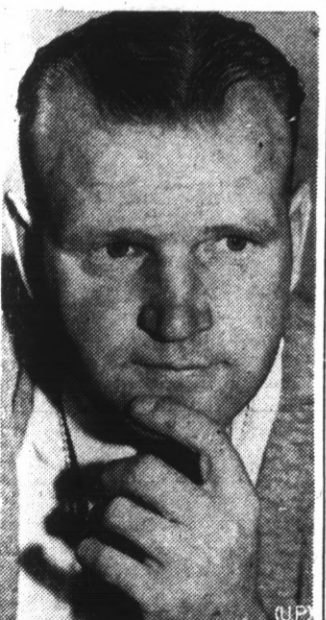

Don't you see, now, that if you boil your flesh one minute and freeze it the next, your circulation is going to improve?

See you again sometime, Joe.

Farmer Tennis Sweep St. Marys; Defeat Revenged

Playing their first match of the Northern California conference, Dan Farmer's tennis squad made a near sweep on St. Mary's Tuesday.

State completely avenged the

crushing defeat they suffered at the hands of Stanford several weeks ago, and Coach Farmer's hopes of a championship squad are now on the rise.

Wagner, Berns, Witt, and Leonetti, first four Gater men, took wins in their matches.

All the doubles were won by State. The only game dropped was a close match hotly fought between Verdenberg of State and Dole of St. Mary's.

Results were:

Singles—Hal Wagner (S) d. Erwin Andre (SM), 6-0, 6-0; Ray Berns (S) d. Dick Lessler (SM), 6-1, 6-0; Jack Witt (S) d. Al Siebel (SM), 6-2, 6-6; Bob Leonetti (S) d. Hor. Wittman (SM), 6-1, 6-2; Les Dole (SM) d. Eric Verdenberg (S), 6-4, 8-6; Harry Coleman (S) d. Tom McGowan (SM), 5-7, 6-1, 6-4.

Doubles—Schwab-Dickinson (S) d. Andre-Lessler (SM), 6-4, 6-2; Berns-Witt (S) d. Wittman-Dole (SM), 6-4, 6-1; Wagner-Leonetti (S) d. Siebel-McGowan (SM), 6-1, 6-1.

Tide vs. Davis Tennis Team; Wagnerto Lead

State tennisers meet a fast Cal Aggies squad tomorrow in a non-conference meet at Davis.

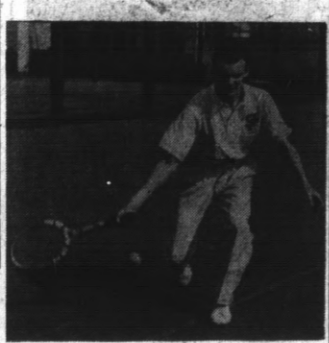

Led by Hal Wagner, the Gater net artists are prepared to cop another win and strengthen Coach Dan Farmer's faith in the squad. The game begins at 9 in the morning, and the netsters will be through in time to root for the track team that afternoon.

Ray Berns, State number two man, is in better condition following his brilliant win in the St. Mary's match. Jack Witt is also primed for the coming contest.

Bob Leonetti, Eric Verdenberg and Harry Coleman are all prepared to come home with their third tennis victory of the season.

McCarty Grabs Inter-Class Honors for Frosh

Orgies Crush Newmans; Record Set

Intramural volleyball was resumed again yesterday noon after a two weeks layoff.

In a closely contested game Sigma Pi Sigma edged out the Outcasts 23-22. The Orgies crushed the Aces 55-10, to set some sort of a scoring record. The only other game was won by the Old Men's Athletic Club by forfeit. The Newman club failed to make an appearance.

Games are scheduled for today and for the rest of the week. All games will be played on the lower tennis courts.

As printed in last week's issue, the next event on the intramural schedule, will be the tumbling and apparatus tests. The marathon run and baseball will follow.

Wiry Ed McCarthy, low freshman sprint flash, led his class to a moral victory over the rest of the school in the two-week inter-class track meet which ended Tuesday.

McCarthy grabbed four first places for 20 points and an all-time high in the 100, 220, low hurdles, and high hurdles gave the low frosh a total of 43½ points.

Also competing for the freshmen were Furman, Gianopolos, Larson, Ludwig and Forbes.

State Trackmen Take On Aggies In First Trial

Coach David J. Cox and his quickly-molded track aggregation will journey to Davis tomorrow to take on a Cal Aggies squad in the first meet of the year.

The boys had no preliminary meets other than the inter-class and Alumni contests, but Coach Cox is confident that the squad will bring home a victory.

Forming the nucleus of the team is a group of veterans that paced last year's squad to a championship season. George Otis, last season's iron man; Dick Schwab, lanky runner, and the record-holding relay team of Crane, Young and Purdom will highlight Saturday's contest.

Stan Lefcourt, who was the fourth man on the relay team last year, is not at school this season. Coach Cox is sure, however, that Harry Cox, long-legged negro runner, will fill his shoes.

Coach Cox predicts one of the most brilliant track seasons ever witnessed at State for this year's team.

Halstead Plans New Horseshoe Tournament

Following the completion of the Intramural Volleyball season, an horseshoe tourney is to take place. This will occur in about two weeks, according to Dan Halstead, who is handling the new event.

All men interested in entering the Horseshoe tournament may make out a slip and put it in Dan Halstead's P. O. Box.

Upon the slips which Halstead asks be put in his Post Office Box, announcing entry, contestants should put their names and the organization with which they are connected.

Hardin Nine to Face Bats of Bankamerica Ball Club

San Francisco State's dusky diamonders go after victory No. 3 tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 when they play host to the Bank of America nine.

The Bank of America club has tangled with California, Stanford, Santa Clara, and other Bay Region nines and have won more than half their games. Joe Stutz, centerfielder, and Larry Webber, third baseman, pace the Bankers at the plate, and Freddie Miller and Ed Whitlow comprise a potent pitching pair.

Coach Hal Hardin will send either Jim Keating, speedball sensation, or left-handed Carl Haas to the hill.

Keating, however, has been handicapped by lack of control and lax support by his infielders.

Haas southpawed the Bankers into submission in last year's encounter and may be Hardin's starting choice. Haas received credit for last Saturday's Cal Aggie triumph.

HENSON TO CATCH

Ray Henson will handle the backstopping duties. Bob Moore holds down the initial sack; second baseman Joe Sullivan teams up with shortstop Les Swanson to form the keystone combination; Don Patton plays the torrid corner.

The outer gardens will be patrolled by hard hitting Leo Howard in right field.

Frank "Tiger" Granucci and Arnold Vezzani may earn starting berths in the outfield.

Three games are scheduled for next week. The Gaters meet San Mateo J. C. Tuesday; travel to Santa Clara Thursday to play the Bronco nine; and cross bats with Moffett Field Flyers Saturday at Sunnyvale.

Leo Fredrickson is the club's leading hitter thus far. Fredrickson is belting the ball at a .500 clip. Bob Moore is batting close to .400.

Keller Claims Record in Annex-A Puddle Paddle

Some time in the near future Bobbie Keller, noted swimming team member and ace long-distance man, is going to make a valiant attempt to swim the entire distance of the puddle running parallel with Annex A.

"I think I can do it in less than 45 seconds under favorable conditions," Bobbie said today. "But of course, you have to take the garbage cans into consideration."

Garbage cans or no garbage cans, swimming enthusiasts can expect to see Bobbie any day now, valiantly thrashing his muddy way along State's version of the English channel.

W.A. to Hold Intra Basket Tournament

The Women's Athletic Association is again sponsoring its annual intramural basketball tournament for girls. These will be held every Tuesday in the Women's gymnasium.

All girls are invited to participate individually or in teams. In order to enter a team, remember that it must consist of eight or more girls.

If you wish to enter, please contact Miss Gire or Adele Francoeur, Box 1087. The tournaments are beginning soon. Monday, March 17, is the final date for entry.

Griffith Tops Luisetti's High

Kenneth (Spider) Griffith, sharp-shooting forward of little Alderson-Broadus College, holds the all-time basketball scoring record of 1,868 points—more than any other college player has ever scored in four years of competition.

Griffith's total topped the previous four-year record held by Hank Luisetti of Stanford by an even 100 points.

San Jose Denies State Ring Clash! Wrestlers to Meet Aggies

After sweeping aside the University of California, 2-1, San Francisco State's boxing team was handed a cancellation of its meet with the San Jose State mittmen. The Spartans, it seems, are having mid-terms and cannot spare the time to come up and box the undefeated Golden Gaters.

As the San Jose meet was the last one on the schedule, the boxing season is officially over.

This season's highlights saw the Gaters hold the powerful Prune Belt champions to a draw, a win over Moffett Field followed by a draw with the Airmen and a victory over the Golden Bears.

This season saw Coach Don Kupfer take a small group of raw recruits and turn the minto first class fighting men. Ernie Leydecker turned in four one-sided victories, while Dick Chin, jabbing lightweight, blitzed every opponent to face him.

GIOIA TOPS

Continuing the list of men who did battle for State, we find dark, little Eddy Gioia, who wound up in the ranks of the undefeated. Carl Magaran finished the season with two victories, a draw and a loss. Bill Kirst failed to have his hand raised over an opponent, but his gameness was applauded by many spectators.

Terry Kilpatrick has been jinxed all season. To finish the season, Kilpatrick suffered a gashed lip, which required five stitches.

Mario Vasquez and Phil Beck after losing their first bouts at San Jose withdrew from the squad.

After being drubbed 28-5 by the San Jose State Freshmen, Coach Don Kupfer's wrestling team is busily preparing for its return engagement with the Cal Aggie matmen at Davis on March 21.

Swimmers Smash Jewish Club In Crushing Win

Sparked by Wednesday's rally, State's swimming team defeated the Jewish Community Center for the second time this season by a score of 46-27 last Wednesday evening.

Minus some of their men, such as Al Mabey, breast stroke man, the State team still managed to take most of the events. The 300 yd. medley was the only race won decisively by the center.

Outstanding men for State were Bob and Hal Keller and Jack Gilkey. Hal turned in good times in both his races—to take firsts and also swam in the four man relay.

Bob, who is one of the best swimmers in these parts, took first place in his events. Jack, who has been training hard, took seconds in two events and swam in the relay, too.

The next meet is with Santa Clara Tuesday night, March 18, at Santa Clara.

Fencing Hopes Sink As Tough Cal Bout Looms

"The fencing team will again enter the field against strong competition and facing probable loss."

These ominous words are the prediction of Coach Duckworth in regard to the team's next tilt. The boys will meet the California varsity next Saturday in Berkeley at 2:00.

Although State's men severely drubbed the Eastbay foil-wielders last year, only a miracle can insure a repeat performance.

The California team has retained the best blood of last year and has strengthened itself with many new and skilled experts. State's team, on the other hand, has lost two of its best men, Twitchell and Lefcourt. Only one recruit, Bill Tilden, has shown up to fill the gap.

Duckworth, against these odds, is putting his hope in the three-man squad of Victor Vari, Bob Lee and John Tilden. It will be a three-way contest in which each man will engage with the three classic dueling weapons—the sabre, foil and espee.

Dyer-Bennet in Medieval Ballads For Peace Group

Richard Dyer-Bennet will include "Lowlands," a hauling chanty of square-rigger days, and "West Wind," an old English song re-discovered among the mountaineers of the Appalachians, in his recital Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Dyer-Bennet, the U. C. man who went all the way to Sweden to hear the singing of the great folksinger, Scholander, accompanies himself on the lute.

The Campus Peace Group, sponsoring the recital, announced through its Music Committee, the remainder of the program will be composed of the best known of the ballads of Chaucer's time; "The Three Ravens"; an Elizabethan sea song, "The Golden Ship"; a French chanson, "The Three Soldiers"; a Swedish country song, "The Shepherd Boy"; the English ballads "Cockle Shells" and "Barbara Allan" and "The Willow Song" from Act V of Shakespeare's "Othello."

The recital will be held in the Frederic Burk Auditorium at 4 p. m. and per capita assessment of 10 cents will be levied.

Men Wanted For 'Two Orphans' Play

More men are needed for "Two Orphans," the term play according to Miss Jessie Casebolt, director. If anyone ever wanted to walk across the stage and get his name on the program, now is his chance, she says.

The cast of "Two Orphans" is completed except for a few minor way-on parts; these are mostly for men, but they do give stage experience.

The play is a melodrama that needs an old fashioned interpretation. It is in rehearsal scene by scene so it isn't necessary for the entire cast to stay every night. Anyone interested in a part should see Miss Casebolt in Annex B2.

"Two Orphans" will be given in the Little Theater, Annex B2, March 27-28. Admission will be free to student body card holders.

Miss Casebolt thinks rehearsals are progressing very well. The play will be ready on the announced dates, and if things go well, there may still be time during the term to put on another play, Miss Casebolt added.

Bib 'n' Tucker Pledges Ready for 'Hell' Day

Once again the campus is being invaded by the Goop Girls. Once again it is initiation time for the Bib'n Tucker Club, according to Lillian Kaplan. In charge of the pledges during initiation is Barbara "Simon Legree" Biggs, who will crack her whip over any disobedient pledge.

Those who will be seen around campus looking like refugees from a fashionless magazine are: Doris Barber, Marion Graven, Alice Glazko, Lucille Henry, Edy Johnson, Dorothy Kuhn, aJne Harlan, Jane Leigh, Jackie Manuel, Beth Payne, Pat Robles, Bettie Schmidt, Alice Sweeney, Lucille Tackle and Jessie Tracy.

Plans are also being made for the combination Fashion Show and dance which will be given April 14 in the Women's Gym under the chairmanship of Rita De Andreis.

"It is doubtful if the English could put a strong enough force in Greece or Turkey to permanently block a determined Nazi thrust," he predicted, "but the mountainous terrain of the probable battle-fronts there could be a serious problem to the German war machine."

He stated that if England wins the war, America will dominate the peace conference and will not repeat the blunders of Versailles.

"But though England wins," he predicted, "she will not be the victor."

Westminster Club initiated round table discussions at their meeting Wednesday. It was claimed this system gives everyone a chance for participation in the talks.

Faculty Probe Seeks Grade Rule Change

Special faculty committees investigating problems of attendance and grading submitted reports to the regular faculty meeting Tuesday, March 11, according to the minutes.

Dr. Somerville Thomson, heading the committee on attendance, entered a progress report in which he stated that 93 per cent of the faculty are in favor of some study being made of the problem and that a clear-cut majority desire some kind of control.

"Our next step is to poll the faculty to determine what is believed to be the best method of setting up some definite control. These results will be submitted to the entire faculty for definite action," Thomson said.

The committee probing the grading system for summer session students, headed by Miss Clara Crumpton of the Education department, reported that it was found to be ill-advised to change the grading system at this time.

However, the matter of investigating the grading system for the entire school year might well be studied at some later date, Miss Crumpton added.

P. T. A. Club Boosts Loan Fund With Cake Sale

Members of the Parent-Faculty Club successfully filled the coffers of the Student Body Loan Fund by holding a cake sale and White Elephant sale last Wednesday in College hall. By noon most of the homemade cakes had been sold to students and faculty members and by 2 p. m. the 10 cent White Elephant articles had all been sold.

The Loan fund is for those students who can prove that they are in need of money and will be able to repay the loan within a certain length of time.

Money is contributed to it from various sources throughout the year and the Parent-Faculty Club is one of the largest supporters because of the sales which they sponsor throughout the term for the express purpose of raising money for the fund.

Pacifica's Dad Exhibits Art

San Francisco's first annual Open Air Art show will be held next Sunday in historic Hotaling place (between Washington and Jackson, and Montgomery and Sansome streets) from noon on. The public is invited to attend and all artists are eligible to exhibit their work, jury-free.

The Open Air Art show has been organized entirely by artists and is not sponsored by any group, individual or organization. Paintings, sculpture, water colors, prints, ceramics, metal work and textiles by some 500 Bay Region artists will be displayed.

Ralph Stackpole, famed sculptor whose Pacifica which dominated Treasure Island is now being considered for the new State campus, will open his Hotaling place stoneyard for the day.

'Brother Race' or Past Candidates Feature Student Rumors on Election

Underneath the lethargy of early Spring lies a potential political typhoon which threatens to storm the campus and overwhelm the body politic—student elections.

Nominations, in the form of petitions containing the names of 50 students, will be submitted to the time until a week before elections. Executive Board from the present. Already passing among the students of the college are whispered rumors concerning the presidential race, a contest which may prove the political highlight of the year.

Names of many prominent students have been mentioned in connection with a possible venture into the annual altercation over the presidency.

Present indications show a belief on the part of many of the politically wise that the coming election might become a "brother race" between Joe Edelstein, treasurer of the student body, and Alex Edelstein, former director of publications and editor of the Golden Gater.

There is also a push being made

State's Summer Camp Planned For Amador County Wonderland -- Farmer

State's recreation camp is situated this year at Kirkwood Lake in Amador County, according to D. M. Farmer, director. It is seven miles beyond Silver Lake, on the Kit Carson Pass, out of Jackson, California, and is a six-hour drive from San Francisco to Kirkwood Lake.

The site will be on the shore of the lake itself where one will be able to indulge in fishing, swimming and boating. Several are nearby and can be visited.

The theme will be "back to nature," for there will be no electricity; everyone will have to sleep outdoors, and cook with wood. All modern home facilities will be lacking. Time spent there will be from June 16 to July 5.

This new type of summer session, located in the Sierra Nevada mountains, will offer several courses.

First aid organization and administration of recreational camps which will be taught by Dan Farmer. Mrs. Elizabeth Farmer will instruct group games for camps, canoeing and boating. Miss Karin Soonsen will be in charge of camp singing, campfire programs and dramatics. Mr. Eugene Baker will teach archery and swimming. Native plant life and nature study affield will be taught by Dr. Ludwig Herz. Mrs. Blanche Ellsworth will instruct leathercraft and art craft with native materials (advanced). Elementary photography will be taught by Mr. Ted Ellsworth.

This is a unique summer session, for it is a great advantage in training students who are interested in the field of recreation. It gives actual experience in camping, crafts, leadership and sports.

There is an ever increasing demand for trained camp leaders who can assume charge of a summer recreational camp program for a state, county, or city project, or who can be in charge of the Y. M. C. A., or boy and girl scout troops.

The price for State students will be $26 for two weeks. Three units of credit can be earned.

Senior Week Co-Chairmen Draw Plans for Finale

Rita O'Brien and Jean Deckman, co-chairmen for the forthcoming Senior week, are working on plans for the Seniors with the help of Dean Mary A. Ward. These plans will be presented to the Senior week committee, discussed and then presented for the approval of the whole class.

Senior week activities will include a pilgrimage, luncheon, tea, stag, dance and barbecue. Graduation exercises will be held at the War Memorial Opera House.

State College Heads Veto Permanent Buildings

Some college buildings should be designed for permanence but most should be constructed to allow for their replacement after ten or twenty years.

This was the decision of the college presidents, Dr. Dexter of the State Department of Education and Ansen Boyd, director of the State Division of Architecture, in Sacramento.

They agreed auditoriums, libraries, record rooms and possibly gymnasiums should be built to last indefinitely, while other buildings need not be so permanent.

"We haven't decided," Dr. Roberts said, "whether or not we will apply these policies in the construction of the Lake Merced campus."

Spanish Students Get Instruction by Radio

Students are studying Spanish and those desiring to learn the language should take advantage of the Spanish lessons broadcast from radio station WRUL, University Club, Boston, Massachusetts, Friday at 5:30 p. m. and Saturday at 12:30 p. m.

The text, "Brief Spanish Grammar for Colleges" is one used by beginning students at State.

Program Change For Fall Semester Announced

Several sweeping changes in policy and program were passed by the faculty at its regular meeting, Tuesday, March 11. The revisions were made from the findings of several faculty investigating committees and includes the calendar and the individual study plan.

By adding a week to the Christmas holiday and putting this time on the Spring semester, the faculty hopes to give the students more time to obtain employment, according to Dean of the College P. F. Valentine. This move might also solve the attendance problem that Christmas holidays create.

A definite policy in regard to individual study students was also adopted by the faculty. Following is the formal motion, with the changes indicated by bold type:

"Individual study should be generally limited to the minor and major departments of the student. It should require advanced standing in the department and not less than a 'B' average in at least three or more course units in the department concerned."

"The recommendations are opposed to the granting of the individual study privilege merely as a convenience for the adjustment of program difficulties."

Dr. Valentine stated further that the individual study plan should be limited to students with a high grade point average and program difficulties should not be taken into consideration in other cases.

The calendar for the college year 1941-42 has undergone several changes, and the schedule is as follows:

FALL, 1941
Sept. 8—College Opens.
Dec. 12—Christmas holidays start.
Jan. 5, 1942—Classes resume.

SPRING, 1942
Feb. 2—College Opens.
Feb. 6—Fees paid.
Feb. 9—Classes start.
June 5—College closes.

Low Frosh In Mick Theme For Social

Saint Patrick, a self-sacrificing Irishman associated with snakes, has the distinction of furnishing the theme for the Low Freshman Social Hour, to take place on Tuesday afternoon, March 18, from 3 to 4:30. Invited are the low freshman class, members of the administrative staff and the faculty.

In charge of arrangements for the event is Marjorie Guinasso. Heading the various other committees are Janet Wright and Patsy Haggis, aiding with decorations, and Rosemary Loney and Barbara Day, who lend their charm to the duties of being hostesses.

The affair will afford opportunities to all low freshmen to meet and know their fellow classmates and faculty members.

KSFO Engineer Talks To Class on Radio

Mr. R. V. Howard, KSFO engineer, who lectured to Dr. Baxter M. Geeting's class of Radio Technology last week, is probably the outstanding radio engineer on the Pacific Coast, having just finished a course at Ohio State on the most recent developments in radio. This course was given engineers from all over the United States, but Mr. Howard was the only Pacific Coast enrollee.

He spoke on FM (Frequency modulation), or the staticless radio, sky and ground waves, and the rapidly developing field of television.

Mr. Howard said television cables have already been laid from New York to Omaha.

Dr. Geeting admits that he, as well as the class, was a bit confused by the technical and mathematical terms used by Mr. Howard.

Socials Planned For Prep Tourney

Preparation of an elaborate itinerary for the great numbers of prep debaters who will participate in the Pacific High School Forensic championships here May 2-3 is nearing completion, according to D. Sumner Lull, tournament chairman.

The itinerary plan, a departure from the traditional procedure, resulted from the tournament's expansion to include schools as far distant as 900 miles. Feeling that a broad program should be offered the visitors, the committee has arranged the speaking schedule to provide many hours of leisure time.

Contestants will have special hotel headquarters, a late evening theater party, a conducted tour of San Francisco, a night baseball game and hotel dancing.

Designed to be a "quick taste" of San Francisco life, the recreation program will in no way interfere with the two full days of debate.
